In almost every neighborhood throughout the West, there are some one or more persons whose lives have been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, or who have been cured of chronic diseases. Such persons are the best possible prescribers in recommending the remedy to others. The praise that follows its introduction and use makes it very popular. 50 cent bottles for sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington, Ben T. Robinson, Morton Gap, Geo. King, St. Charles.

Laxiness grows on people. It cowers and ends in iron claws.—Texas Shiftings.

Some of the Grand Army men may be interested to learn that from April 1st, 1890, A. D. C. Commander Dept. Test. and Gs. He says: "We have an epidemic of whooping cough here (St. Louis, Tenn.,) and Chamberlain's Cholera Remedy has been the only medicine that has done me any good. I have had a bad case of whooping cough, when this remedy is freely given. It completely controls the disease and 30 cent bottles for sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington, Ben T. Having to live on one's wits is the best, anti-fat remedy discovered so far.

The St. Bernard Druggist desires us to publish the following testimony as they handle the remedy and believe it to be reliable.

I bought a case bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, which have been advertised with phenomenal success for over a year. At the time I bought the Palm Balm I was unable to walk. I can truly say that Palm Balm has completely cured me. R. H. Fass, Holy Cross, Md. Mr. Fass, the leading druggist at Holywood, reaches for the truth of the above statement.

There is a typographical error on our coins that should be corrected. We refer to the inscription, "In God we trust." It should read "In this God we trust." We move that in the interest of truth "this" be inserted.—Independent Politician.

Saginaw, Mich., is to the front with a first class sensation. A pretty, serious young woman, pretty as a picture, jumps out from dark corners at night and forcibly kisses young men as they pass, and then bounds away with a merry laugh. It is said even the best disciplined married men are contracting the habit of staying out of nights.

General Delight.

General delight is a common complaint and the most difficult too for which to find a cure. There is no remedy for it, and the best treatment is to let the person have a quiet, quiet life.

While most of our housekeepers are especially fond of canning and pickling fruits, they do not make as much use of them as is made dishes as they might. While a dish of canned fruit is a good dish, it is not a good meal. A meal of canned fruit is a good meal, but it is not a good dinner.

It is a wise thing to set a good example before our neighbors. It is far wiser, as well as far harder, to set an example before our neighbors than before the public.
